How to Plan Ahead for the End of Life with Julie Coraccio with Julie Coraccio · Hosted by Kathi Burns, CPO®, Business FLOW Strategist

Julie Coraccio is an award-winning professional organizer, certified life coach and end-of-life organizer who hosts the podcast Clear Your Clutter Inside & Out.

- [ ] Write down your end-of-life wishes and tell the people who need to know.
- [ ] Gather your health care documents and name your health care proxy.
- [ ] Decide where your important papers will be stored and let your family know.
- [ ] Choose what should happen to your social media accounts after you die.
- [ ] Organize your paperwork before you meet with an attorney so you're not paying by the hour for sorting.
- [ ] Say no to work that doesn't pay what your time is worth.
- [ ] Pick a niche that reflects who you are.
- [ ] Process each email: act on it, delete it, delegate it or schedule it for later.
- [ ] Reply to every inquiry, and refer people who aren't a fit to a trusted partner.
- [ ] Take Julie's free 10-question self-assessment to find your clutter priority, then just start.
