Drawing Out The Inner Artist That Has Always Been Inside with Patrick Carney

with Patrick Carney · Hosted by Kathi Burns, CPO®, Business FLOW Strategist

Rock and roll artist Patrick Carney built his first relationships by sketching strangers on the New York subway and handing them the drawing with his phone number.

- [ ] Document your work from the start.
- [ ] Find mentors who are doing what you want to do, and ask them to sit down with you.
- [ ] Invite the biggest names you admire; Patrick finds they are often the most accessible.
- [ ] Keep an empty chair next to you so a mentor, friend or another artist can sit and talk.
- [ ] Pick an object, spend a few minutes on each part of it, draw it with your eyes closed, then draw it again with your eyes open.
- [ ] Join a mastermind, or start your own if you can't find one that fits.
- [ ] Read Think and Grow Rich by Napoleon Hill before you start a mastermind.
- [ ] Ask yourself every morning: what is the first or next step?
- [ ] Write the rules of the game for your business before you hire anyone.
- [ ] Look for coachable employees and support their learning with mentors, courses or college.
