How to Find Your 'It' & Pivot Your Career Successfully with Debbi Dachinger

with Debbi Dachinger · Hosted by Kathi Burns, CPO®, Business FLOW Strategist

Debbi Dachinger was a professional actress and singer having her biggest year ever when she felt a pull to do something different, and she gave herself about three years to figure out what came next.

- [ ] If a pull to change won't go away, honor it and give yourself time to try things.
- [ ] Notice where doors keep opening and people keep asking for your help.
- [ ] Pace what you give clients so they can act on it instead of freezing.
- [ ] Put your courses and group material on one platform your clients can reach.
- [ ] Use discernment before jumping on a marketing bandwagon, and test one new channel at a time.
- [ ] Introduce yourself briefly in a local group like Nextdoor and say what you do.
- [ ] Email your list to offer check-in calls, and make sure everyone leaves with something useful.
- [ ] Pick a daily stop time, take a lunch break and protect your weekends.
- [ ] Keep one list for today's priorities and one ongoing list.
- [ ] Delete completely disengaged contacts from your email list.
